PRIDAY, PERRUARY 5, 1869. THE Republican Banner and Press and Times deny the charges of the School Fund Investigation Committee implicating their editors and proprietors.

A BILL was introduced in the Senate vesterday to pay Buck Lewis, a "colored individual" $300 for services in 1861 and 1862 as porter to the "Rebel" Senate.

THE Representative from Clai borne made a very silly attempt yesterday to have the reporter for the Banner expelled. The cause for this was a wordy "bont" he had with the reporter in which he got

MR. CAULE, of Dickson, said in the House of Representatives a few days ago that "weak-kneed, kindhearted members of the Horace Greeley stripe should be sifted out" of the Radical party. The Clarksville Patriot (Radical) protests against Mr. Greeley being "judged by the narrow, bigoted and jaundiced standard of Tennessee poli tics and a Tennessee Legislature.

If the editor of the Fayetteville Observer will read what Gen. Cooper said to the delegation from Madison county, he will certainly appreciate the justness of what we said on the 27th ult. We do not doubt that the gentlemen who came from the several counties with the hope of "averting the curse of a militia garrison" were sincerely honest in what they did, but Gen. Cooper's response to the Madison delegation shows that theirs was a mistaken zeal.

THE Clarksville Patriot (Radi cal) learns that the members of the Legislature " are portioning out all the offices under Gen. Grant among themselves, signing each other's petitions." The Patriot regards this as "decidedly cool and refreshing." Our Radical contemporary should not be astonished at this exhibition of "patriotism." Members of the Legislature have shown a great willingness to serve the State, as witness the "school fund' developments.

MR. SHELLABARGER reports to the Committee on elections, and the committee will so report to the House of Representatives, that "the constitution prohibits Congress granting Mr. Hamilton a seat" as an extra member from this State Poor old man Rodgers, after having his heart set on being recognised as "the gentleman from Tennessee," is to be disappointed too. The poor old man will learn that this dry crust was thrown him that others might enjoy the fat offices while he was gnawing at it.

THE citizens of Hawkins county held a meeting on the 29th ult., to demand that the constitutional provision for an elective judiciary by the qualified voters shall be complied with. The meeting was presided over by Judge Gillenwaters. (Radical) of the Criminal Court. and participated in by Judge Swan. of the Circuit Court. It is a remarkable feature in the history of our State that the Judges have to descend from the bench to demand that the chief executive officer of the State shall do what his oath requires him to do.

THE various "rings" seem to have got such control of Congress that they can carry almost any measure that will afford plunder. The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette telegraphs on the 2d inst. that the sub-commit tee of three in the Senate Railroad Committee had substantially agreed on a grand scheme for subsidizing railroads. Finding both branches of Congress against any more bond subsidies, the railway men now take a new departure, and ask that the government shall guarantee the interest on bonds issued by the respective roads to be benefitted. This sub-committee have favorably considered a consolidation which covers five thousand miles of line, with a government guarantee of interest for forty years on thirty thousand dollars per mile. No lands are given, and roads are to return the interest from their receipts.

SUPERINTENDENT EATON AND THE

Mr. John Eaton, Jr., the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, is, according to the testimony submitted by the investigating committee, mixed up with the manipulation and disappearance of the "school fund," and a resolution was offered in the House of him reverence." The "well-dis Representatives yesterday looking posed ex Rebels" are tax payers to an investigation of the affair. If they constitute the wealth and inhe is implicated to the extent which | telligence of the State, but the conthe testimony indicates, he should be impeached and expelled from office. Mr. Parham testified that Eaton told him that "he was in the employ of Mr. Rutter to secure the passage of the bill" by anthority of which the "school fund" was placed in Rutter's bank. On the 9th of August, 1867, Eaton wrote to Rutter "Elected as I am to a State office connected with the transaction you suggest, I should prefer which he was thrown by adventinot to take part in it, further than tions circumstances. No wonder to advise with the Governor of he is "emphatic" in declaring others, should it be wished." And again on the 26th of the same month, he wrote to Rutter asking him to see that "the notes in the Tennessee National Bank are not writing is less clear than her convictions.

got hold of so as to break us." NEW ADVERTISEMENTS These two letters make a very bad showing for Mr. Eaton. Having brought this much to ight, the Legislature would stultify itself if it permitted this man to go "unwhipt of justice." He had assumed the position of a guardian for the children of the State, and here was a "sacred fund" set apart by enactment of the Legislature for their benefit, and the testimony shows that he made himself a party to the work of placing this fund where he ought to have known, from the means resorted to to secure it, that it would likely never return to benefit the children.
